BROTHERHOOD OF LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN AND ENGINEMEN

July 28th

1912

To the Officers and Members of _____ Lodge, No. _____

Sirs:—Having formed a favorable opinion of your Order, I respectfully petition to be admitted to membership in your Lodge.

My age is Twenty one years and 5 months;

my residence is Suite 20, Verona Apartments, Victor St. Wpg.;

my present occupation is that of Fireman;

in the employment of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

My term of service as a Locomotive Engineman has been 11 months as Fireman, _____ as Engineer, _____ as Hostler, and I am now actually employed as a Locomotive Fireman, ~~Engineer, Hostler~~.

I certify that I am sound in mind, body and limb, and that I can read and write the English language. If admitted, I promise a strict compliance with all the laws, rules and regulations of the Order. I understand and agree that my application fee of $1.25 (herein enclosed) is to evidence my good faith, and to defray preliminary expenses incidental to the consideration and disposition of my application, and if I am rejected I understand that I am not entitled to receive any benefits or other consideration from said Brotherhood, and that if accepted, unless I present myself for initiation within sixty (60) days from the date of notice thereof, and am actually initiated according to the rites and ceremonies of said Brotherhood, no rights shall in any manner accrue to me, and all claims to any right or benefit on the part of myself herein are hereby waived if I fail to be initiated, whether such failure be due to my own fault, to the fault of said Lodge, or on account of any other reason.

I understand and agree that neither I, nor any beneficiary or beneficiaries whom I may designate, shall be entitled to participate in the Beneficiary Department of said Brotherhood, nor shall said Brotherhood incur any liability whatsoever to pay to me or my beneficiary any sum of money whatever by reason of my becoming a member of said Brotherhood until the General Medical Examiner shall have first approved my application for Beneficiary Certificate, and after my initiation until such time as the General Medical Examiner, who shall be sole judge thereof, does approve the said application for Beneficiary Certificate, I agree to be classified as a non-beneficiary member, entitled to all the rights, privileges and benefits of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, except those of participating in the Beneficiary Department.

I understand that until my application for Beneficiary Certificate is approved by the General Medical Examiner and a Beneficiary Certificate is issued to me by the General Secretary and Treasurer, I am not required to pay any beneficiary assessments or advance any sum of money for that purpose; and I also understand that the Financial Secretary, or any other officer of the Lodge, is not authorized by the rules and regulations of the said Brotherhood to make such collection or receive any beneficiary assessment until my application for Beneficiary Certificate has first been approved by the General Medical Examiner, and therefore any money which I may pay the Financial Secretary, or any officer of the Lodge, for such purpose, is done for my own convenience and for the purpose of holding said money for me pending the approval or rejection of my application for Beneficiary Certificate. I constitute said Financial Secretary, or other officer of said Lodge to whom I may make such advanced payment, my agent, and will look to such officer for the return of the amount so advanced in case of the disapproval of my application for Beneficiary Certificate by the General Medical Examiner.

Sirs:—Having formed a favorable opinion of your Order, I respectfully petition to be admitted to membership in your Lodge.

My age is 26 years and _____ months;my residence is 648 Stella Ave;my present occupation is that of Locomotive Fireman;in the employment of the CP & N Railway Company.My term of service as a Locomotive Engineman has been 6 mths as Fireman, _____ as Engineer, _____ as Hostler, and I am now actually employed as a Locomotive Fireman, Engineer, Hostler.

I certify that I am sound in mind, body and limb, and that I can read and write the English language. If admitted, I promise a strict compliance with all the laws, rules and regulations of the Order. I understand and agree that my application fee of $1.25 (herein enclosed) is to evidence my good faith, and to defray preliminary expenses incidental to the consideration and disposition of my application, and if I am rejected I understand that I am not entitled to receive any benefits or other consideration from said Brotherhood, and that if accepted, unless I present myself for initiation within sixty (60) days from the date of notice thereof, and am actually initiated according to the rites and ceremonies of said Brotherhood, no rights shall in any manner accrue to me, and all claims to any right or benefit on the part of myself herein are hereby waived if I fail to be initiated, whether such failure be due to my own fault, to the fault of said Lodge, or on account of any other reason.

I understand and agree that neither I, nor any beneficiary or beneficiaries whom I may designate, shall be entitled to participate in the Beneficiary Department of said Brotherhood, nor shall said Brotherhood incur any liability whatsoever to pay to me or my beneficiary any sum of money whatever by reason of my becoming a member of said Brotherhood until the General Medical Examiner shall have first approved my application for Beneficiary Certificate, and after my initiation until such time as the General Medical Examiner, who shall be sole judge thereof, does approve the said application for Beneficiary Certificate, I agree to be classified as a non-beneficiary member, entitled to all the rights, privileges and benefits of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, except those of participating in the Beneficiary Department.

I understand that until my application for Beneficiary Certificate is approved by the General Medical Examiner and a Beneficiary Certificate is issued to me by the General Secretary and Treasurer, I am not required to pay any beneficiary assessments or advance any sum of money for that purpose; and I also understand that the Financial Secretary, or any other officer of the Lodge, is not authorized by the rules and regulations of the said Brotherhood to make such collection or receive any beneficiary assessment until my application for Beneficiary Certificate has first been approved by the General Medical Examiner, and therefore any money which I may pay the Financial Secretary, or any officer of the Lodge, for such purpose, is done for my own convenience and for the purpose of holding said money for me pending the approval or rejection of my application for Beneficiary Certificate. I constitute said Financial Secretary, or other officer of said Lodge to whom I may make such advanced payment, my agent, and will look to such officer for the return of the amount so advanced in case of the disapproval of my application for Beneficiary Certificate by the General Medical Examiner.

Application for Membership

BROTHERHOOD OF LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN AND ENGINEMEN

October

19 11

To the Officers and Members of _____ Lodge, No. _____

SIRS: Having formed a favorable opinion of your Order, I respectfully petition to be admitted to membership in your Lodge.

My age is twenty three years and seven months; my residence is 257 1/2 St. James Street Winnipeg; my present occupation is that of Fireman, in the employment of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

My term of service as a Locomotive Engineman has been 15 weeks as Fireman, _____ as Engineer, _____ as Hostler, and I am now actually employed as a Locomotive Fireman, Engineer, Hostler.

I certify that I am sound in mind, body and limb, and that I can read and write the English language. If admitted, I promise a strict compliance with all the laws, rules and regulations of the Order. I understand and agree that my application fee of $1.25 (herein enclosed) is to evidence my good faith, and to defray preliminary expenses incidental to the consideration and disposition of my application, and if I am rejected I understand that I am not entitled to receive any benefits or other consideration from said Brotherhood, and that if accepted, unless I present myself for initiation within sixty (60) days from the date of notice thereof, and am actually initiated according to the rites and ceremonies of said Brotherhood, no rights shall in any manner accrue to me, and all claims to any right or benefit on the part of myself herein are hereby waived if I fail to be initiated, whether such failure be due to my own fault, to the fault of said Lodge, or on account of any other reason.

I understand and agree that neither I, nor any beneficiary or beneficiaries whom I may designate, shall be entitled to participate in the Beneficiary Department of said Brotherhood, nor shall said Brotherhood incur any liability whatsoever to pay to me or my beneficiary any sum of money whatever by reason of my becoming a member of said Brotherhood until the General Medical Examiner shall have first approved my application for Beneficiary Certificate, and after my initiation until such time as the General Medical Examiner, who shall be sole judge thereof, does approve the said application for Beneficiary Certificate, I agree to be classified as a non-beneficiary member, entitled to all the rights, privileges and benefits of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, except those of participating in the Beneficiary Department.

I understand that until my application for Beneficiary Certificate is approved by the General Medical Examiner and a Beneficiary Certificate is issued to me by the General Secretary and Treasurer, I am not required to pay any beneficiary assessments or advance any sum of money for that purpose; and I also understand that the Financial Secretary, or any officer of the Lodge, is not authorized by the rules and regulations of the said Brotherhood to make such collection or receive any beneficiary assessment until my application for Beneficiary Certificate has first been approved by the General Medical Examiner, and therefore any money which I may pay the Financial Secretary, or any officer of the Lodge, for such purpose, is done for my own convenience and for the purpose of holding said money for me pending the approval or rejection of my application for Beneficiary Certificate. I constitute said Financial Secretary, or other officer of said Lodge to whom I may make such advanced payment, my agent, and will look to such officer for the return of the amount so advanced in case of the disapproval of my application for Beneficiary Certificate by the General Medical Examiner.
